

The Registration for the SDH 2011 Conference is now open. Please note the Early bird deadline of October 15. <http://cst.ku.dk/sdh2011/registration/>

47 papers and posters are accepted, e.g.

- Agiatis Benardou, Panos Constantopoulos and Costis Dallas: Classical Philology, Text-based and Holocaust studies facing digital research infrastructures: From practice to requirements
- Matthew James Driscoll and Eric Haswell: XML for quantitative codicology
- Jan Rietema, Doris Dr. Tausendfreund and Nicoals Prof. Dr. Apostolopoulos: How to process Oral History Interviews for academic use: The Archive "Forced Labor 1939-1945. Memory and History"

You will find the full list of accepted papers on the website <http://cst.ku.dk/sdh2011/papers/>

If you have any questions regarding the conference, please contact :

Bente Maegaard, Centre for Language Technology, University of Copenhagen bmaegaard\(at\)hum.ku.dk